

The Epiphany School of Charlotte

Summer Camp 2010

Join us for a summer of fun, friendship, and learning!

The Epiphany School of Charlotte will be providing their annual communication and social skills summer camp for children 10 to 14 years of age. Through fun experiential activities, children will have the opportunity to build upon their natural strengths to enhance communication and social skills and make new friends in a safe educational and recreational atmosphere.

In small group settings, experienced teachers and camp counselors will guide your child through a variety of activities designed to enhance communication skills, positive social interactions, problem-solving, and building self-confidence. The Epiphany School of Charlotte is a non-profit, private, Christian middle school for students with social and communication skills challenges.

CSI Camp

June 21-25 and July 12-16

We will integrate investigative strategies and interactive problem solving to discover the individual Communication, Social skills Identity (CSI) of camp participants as well investigating possible suspects. Science, writing, art and outdoor activities will be a daily part of the investigation. Chapel will be incorporated in order to discover our spiritual identities. Please dress for outdoor activities.

Imagine What You Can Build!

June 28-July 2 and July 19-23

Building character along with Lego projects will be fun and challenging for all Lego fans! Daily activities will include group Lego building projects, art, science, writing and outdoor activities. Communication and social skills, problem-solving and planning will be emphasized for cooperative group activities. Building character will be our chapel theme for the week. Please dress for outdoor activities.
